

Modern Slavery and Anti-Trafficking Statement

Amber and Black (Notts) Limited is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in its operations. Amber and Black (Notts) Ltd. is a small business operating predominantly in supplying consulting services to the pharmaceutical industry. As such, we do not have our own supply chains. We procure our office supplies and equipment from companies which have explicit and up-to-date policies of their own on anti-trafficking and human slavery. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and risk assess all new suppliers and clients before engaging with them. We do not have any employees.
